

DAILY GAZETTE

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1882.

BREAKFAST BRIEFS.

Pay day yesterday.
The railroaders captured Holland (Gu.)

The republican central committee meets often and long now days.
Frank Manzanarez will carry all the counties in the territory but two.

There has been no conventions for a few days, and politics are quieting down.

The city council held no session yesterday afternoon, a quorum not being present.

J. W. Pierce is manufacturing a number of racks for Houghton's hardware store.

A large number of the old conductors of the A. T. & S. F. road are striking south into Old Mexico.

Paul Crawford is quite sure of being elected, judging by the conversation of the railroaders yesterday.

The editors of the Optic and Albuquerque Democrat were guests at the Montezuma last evening.

Will Captain A. G. Stark make the race for justice or not is one of the political questions of the hour.

Officer D. Sandoval is making himself famous for the ease and skill with which he brings offenders to justice.

I. Stern, of the "Famous" store, advertises this morning a large line of new goods, which will bear inspection.

Marcellino, Boffa & Perez have got their east side fruit stand back to its old quarters on Center street, near the bakery.

Billy Burton treated his numerous customers to one of the fine Saturday night lunches for which the place is famous.

The California meat market is doing a good business and the reason for it is because a good quality of beef is sold there.

Mr. Williams, colored, has been advanced to the position of head waiter at the Plaza in place of Jim Gallagher, resigned.

The extension of the street railway is being pushed vigorously. It will not be long before the new line will be in operation.

"Marks" dining hall on Douglas avenue, has a first-class patronage. Mark is a jolly good fellow, and deserves credit.

Billy Rawlins, at the Exchange, set up a fine lunch last night as the opening one of the season. He had a house full of customers.

On the inside will be found an interesting communication from Agua Zarca, in Sonora. The Sonora railroad is now about finished.

B. C. Rountree is selling out his groceries on Sixth street at cost. This is an excellent opportunity to lay in a supply at low figures.

Don't forget to register and have your friends register. The Luna leaders will see that all their friends are registered whether dead or alive.

Mark Howell was busily engaged yesterday establishing the grade on Railroad and Grand avenues. Center and Sixth streets, in east Las Vegas.

The cut stone front of Chas. Uffell's building is one of the finest pieces of work in the territory. It was done by W. Wells, who is an artist at his trade.

The several places of registration are Precinct No. 29, Judge Steele's office, Precinct No. 5, Justice Uihari's office, Precinct No. 26, Justice Montoya's office.

The Golden Rule clothing house was so crowded yesterday that it was almost impossible to catch like on the fly. Enterprise and advertising is bound to win.

The people this load of poles evidently propose to have something to say about corruption in politics and fraudulent delegations from counties. They will denounce it effectually.

H. Romero & Bro. yesterday received and put away in their warehouse two car loads of the best family flour, Messrs. Romero Brothers are doing a splendid business in their store.

An excursion party from Muscatine, Iowa, is the next to enjoy the beauties of the Hot Springs. After spending a short time at the springs the excursion will go on to Los Angeles, California.

The evening blizzard being short of news fills up its columns with personal abuse of the editors of this paper. Well keep it up; it amuses us to hear a denkey bray or see a monkey bite its tail.

The Little Casino grocery store will move to the next building, Marcus & Clemm's old stand. Mr. Dantziger's receipts for yesterday were almost $500. This includes one cash sale of $180.

E. A. Prentice's meat market is provided with a fine lot of fresh beef. Mr. Prentice takes great pains in selecting his beef cattle with a view of supplying the Las Vegas market with choice meats.

Mr. Browning received a cablegram from Mr. Dinkel dated Glasgow, October 19, in which he says his business is arranged satisfactorily and he would take steamer that day homeward bound.

John Gregg, wood turner in Ogden's planing mill, is completing a neat piece of work. It consists of a common sized goblet made from mountain cedar. It is beautifully finished and ornamented. The goblet is an excellent illustration of what Mr. Gregg can accomplish as a wood turner. He intends to send this piece of work east as an exhibition of his skill.

A Grand Opening.

Yesterday afternoon and evening the large establishment of Gross, Blackwell & Co. was crowded with ladies and gentlemen, who had called to witness the magnificent display of fine goods of all descriptions, which have just been received by this house. Mr. Gillies, the head of the dry goods department has taken special pains to arrange for all callers. The numerous clerks in the house were kept constantly engaged showing the goods and explaining their merits. The stock of fall and winter goods which has just been opened out is certainly one of the largest and best selected which has ever been brought to this city. It has been purchased with care and to fill the special demands of the Las Vegas market. Ladies' dress goods of the latest and most fashionable patterns can be found in abundance on the shelves of this mammoth dry goods emporium. Lines of the very richest kinds will be shown with pleasure. The large selection of fashionable and excellent furnishing goods is the wonder of northern New Mexico. The house of Gross, Blackwell & Co. the successor of the house of Otero, Seller & Co. has not only a splendid local trade but a territorial reputation for excellence and honest dealing. This grand display was commenced yesterday afternoon and will be continued tomorrow afternoon and evening. The large number of callers was so great yesterday and was so eminently gratifying to the owners and managers that they have determined to continue it until all from the city as well as from the country adjacent can call and witness an array of goods seldom seen in one house at one time. Go and look it will cost you nothing.

Adon's Iron Works.

This institution is fast making itself felt as a necessity in New Mexico. In spite of the dull times which have prevailed for the last few months in this territory the iron works have continued to do a good business, and at present it has a good run of trade, although it is not yet a year old. Mr. Adon and sons are all well versed in the business and have all the machinery necessary for carrying on the work successfully. They are now engaged in manufacturing a saw mill for Dr. Milligan and M. M. Richardson. This mill is to be used by the ice company for the manufacturing of sawdust for the storing of ice above the Hot Springs. It is a water mill and will be manufactured in toto by the Las Vegas iron works. All the castings, wheels, bolts, shafts, in fact, everything needed will be made here and for much less cost than the same machinery can be made for in the east and laid down in Las Vegas. Sawmill men and all others who are operating machinery of any kind should make a note of this and get upon it when they need any machinery made or repaired.

Novel Flirtation.

A story is going the rounds that a handsome young hotel clerk at the Hot Springs has been carrying on a handkerchief flirtation with several young female manipulators of the handkerchief for some time past. Yesterday the ladies hung a handkerchief in such a position that the wind would give it motion and then retired some distance to watch developments. Said young gent soon "caught on" and at once commenced to answer the flirtations of the fickle wind, but he soon found this element a fickle goddess indeed and gave up in despair. It is needless to add that the girls enjoyed the seance.

A Correspondent's Views.

To the Editor of the GAZETTE:
The chicanery of the Albuquerque convention was not in accordance with the principles or the past history of the grand old republican party. If the nominee wins it will be because the people of the Territory pay a premium to corruption. The GAZETTE is right and has planted itself upon the principles which have made the republican party what it is and what it must be if it will command the confidence of the people at the ballot box.

A REPUBLICAN FROM PRINCIPLE.

To the Republican Party of the County of San Miguel.

With my most sincere thanks to the delegates of the republican county convention, those who in good faith tender me the nomination as county clerk for San Miguel county, do hereby inform them that I decline said nomination on the ground that, as all of you are aware, that my father was nominated as probate judge by the democratic party and I cannot possibly accept.

Respectfully,
M. C. DE BACA.

Al Pueblo del Condado de San Miguel,
Con las mas sinceras gracias a los delegados de la convencion Republicana del condado de San Miguel, aquellos que en buena fe me nominacion como Escribano del condado, los informo que no me es posible aceptar tal nominacion por la razon que todos saben que mi Padre fue nominado como Juez de Puebas en el partido opuesto, cuyo motivo mi justificacion ante mis amigos. Respectuosamente,
M. C. DE BACA.

Off for Fort Stanton.

James Duncan, of this city, will start a train of seven wagons to Fort Stanton Monday. The train will be loaded with freight for the post.

The republican central committee yesterday afternoon held a session for the purpose of filling vacancies and harmonizing the republican county ticket. A lengthy session was held, but some of the resignations did not seem to be in such a shape as to be considered, and after a lengthy discussion without any success the committee adjourned. We are sorry that an amicable understanding was not reached in the premises, as the situation is not such as to be the most encouraging, and the time is getting short for work.

Rev. La Tourette, chaplain at Fort Union, accompanied by H. L. Gamble, arrived yesterday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Gamble will be ordained this morning at St. Paul's chapel.

Some one has borrowed several weights from Brownlee, Winters & Co. As the person interested in balances left two weights, Mr. Brownlee desires him to return and get the rest of the set, which is now useless.

The GAZETTE's midnight reporter will soon cease to trouble the Optic with his immoral and immoral reports, on which occasion we expect Brother Russ will send over a basket of Mummy's Extra Dry. It makes us dry to think of it.

Albert Schuster has been caught at Deming, and Sheriff Romero has gone after the German (noloco). He left dressed in fine broadcloth, white shirt and gold studs, and has probably spent the money he absconded with.

S. Patty, the tinner, has just completed a large order for Chas. Blanchard. The goods were removed to Blanchard's warehouse yesterday. Mr. Patty turns out the best of work and is always ready to fill large orders in a short time.

Nat Wright's saloon on Railroad avenue was full of railroaders yesterday; they were drinking good liquors and listening to the stories of Uncle Nat., who, by the way, cannot be beat at spinning yarns, and who always makes it pleasant for the boys when they drop in to see him.

Ned Gross and Tom Parker are preparing for a duck hunt. They were getting their shooting irons in readiness yesterday. Doc. Milligan had better set a watch over his goose ranch or it will make but little difference how the injunction suit goes as the geese and ducks will all be in the pot anyhow.

John S. Firey, of Topeka, one of the directors of the Mexican Consolidated Gold and Silver Mining company, passed through this city yesterday en route to Cerrillos to examine the mines belonging to the above named company. He will remain in the mines several days and then return to this city, where he will transact some business connected with the company and take steps looking to the establishment of reduction works at this place.
